Alexandra Morgan

SENIOR PRODUCT MANAGER

Professional Summary

Senior Product Manager with 9+ years of experience building B2B SaaS and data products used by more than 2 million people. Proven record of taking products from zero to $10M+ ARR, leading cross-functional teams of up to 25, and turning customer research into roadmaps that move revenue, retention and NPS. Combines strong analytical skills (SQL, experimentation, pricing) with a hands-on, design-led approach to product discovery. Known for clear communication with executives, building high-trust teams and mentoring the next generation of product managers.

Work Experience

Senior Product Manager, Analytics Platform — Mar 2021 – Present
Brightwave Analytics — San Francisco, CA

Lead product for the self-serve analytics platform (4 squads, 25 engineers, designers and data scientists) serving 1,800+ enterprise customers.

- Launched the self-serve analytics suite from concept to GA in 9 months, growing ARR by $6.4M within 18 months of launch
- Defined a 3-year product vision and quarterly OKRs across three product lines, aligning engineering, sales and marketing around a single roadmap
- Reduced logo churn by 23% by introducing guided onboarding, in-app health scores and proactive success alerts
- Introduced continuous discovery practices (weekly customer interviews, opportunity trees), cutting time-to-validated-idea from 6 weeks to 2
- Partnered with the CFO on a new usage-based packaging model, lifting average contract value by 18%
